

Captions :

The missing Persons and their Families

Kosova – 2005 / 2006

by Ferdi LIMAN

Photo 01 –

Exhumers of the Missing Persons and Forensics office wait to start digging a possible mass grave sight. 11/09/06/Saradan/Kosovo

Photo 02 –

All that was left behind from the house of Hysen Behluli who is still missing. Himself and five other members of his close family, his wife Mihane, daughters Hana and Huma and sons Lulzim and Muhamet. They were taken by Serbian forces on March 26th, 1999 from their house to an unknown location. 01/08/06/Fushe Kosovo/Kosovo

Photo 03 –

Workers of Missing Persons and Forensics office matching bones of Kosovo Albanian war victims brought from Batajnica military facility where they were found in a mass grave. 12/09/06/Prishtina/Kosovo

Photo 04 –

Muharrem Zylfiu the son-in-law of Hysen Behluli stands by the wall of the house from where six members of Behluli family were taken by Serbian forces to an unknown location. 01/08/06/Fushe Kosovo/Kosovo

Photo 05 –

Family members of the war victims greeting the mortal remains of Kosovo Albanians who were found in mass graves in Serbia. 31/03/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 06 –

A young Kosovo Albanian girl stands by a poster with photographs of the missing persons from Kosovo war in Merdare border cross point on June 30th, 2006 during the handover ceremony of One Hundred and Ten mortal remains of the war victims killed by Serbian forces during the 1999 war in Kosovo. The mortal remains were transferred to Kosovo from Batajnica, an area close to Serbian capital Belgrade. 729 bodies were transferred from Serbia to Kosovo since year 2002. 30/06/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 07 –

Handover of eleven body remains of Kosovo Serbian people to their families in Merdare border point between Kosovo and Serbia on April 7, 2006. Coffins with remains of bodies found in a mass grave in central Kosovo were given to their families without any presence of institutions who deal with missing persons.

Photo 08 –

Handover of eleven body remains of Kosovo Serbian people to their families in Merdare border point between Kosovo and Serbia on April 7, 2006. Coffins with remains of bodies found in a mass grave in central Kosovo were given to their families without any presence of institutions who deal with missing persons.

07/04/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 09 –

A member of Kosovo Protection Corps stands guarding while a relative of a war victim is honoring the mortal remains in Merdare border cross point.

31/03/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 10 –

Handover of eleven body remains of Kosovo Serbian people to their families in Merdare border point between Kosovo and Serbia on April 7, 2006. Coffins with remains of bodies found in a mass grave in central Kosovo were given to their families without any presence of institutions who deal with missing persons.

07/04/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 11 –

Mortal Remains of Kosovo Albanian war victims in plastic bags.

30/06/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 12 –

A member of Kosovo Missing Persons Unit (MPU) carries a plastic bag with mortal remains of a war victim in Merdare border cross point on 30 June 2006 during the handover ceremony of One Hundred and Ten mortal remains of the war victims killed by Serbian forces during the 1999 war in Kosovo. The mortal remains were transferred to Kosovo from Batajnica, an area close to Serbian capital Belgrade. 729 bodies were transferred from Serbia to Kosovo since year 2002. 30/06/06/Merdare/Kosovo

Photo 13 –

A forensics officer opens the plastic bags containing bones belonging to Kosovo Albanian war victims found in mass graves in Batajnica military facility close to Belgrade. 12/09/06/Prishtina/Kosovo

Photo 14 –

An officer of Missing Persons and Forensics office shows a clear evidence of an execution of a Kosovo Albanian war victims brought from Batajnica military facility where they were found in a mass grave. 09/09/06/Prishtina/Kosovo

Photo 15 –

Examination room of Missing Persons and Forensics in Prishtina.

12/09/06/Prishtina/Kosovo

Photo 16 –
A KFOR bulldozer digs a possible mass grave sight. 11/09/06/Saradan/Kosovo

Photo 17 –
The pre burial ceremony visit to the families of the war victims.
30/09/05/Gjakova/Kosovo

Photo 18 –
Family members bury the coffins of the war victims found in mass graves in Serbia which are to be buried in war victims cemetery in Cabrat/Gjakova.
30/09/05/Gjakova/Kosovo

Photo 19 –
Family members bury the coffins of the war victims found in mass graves in Serbia which are to be buried in war victims cemetery in Cabrat/Gjakova.
30/09/05/Gjakova/Kosovo

Photo 20 –
War victims cemetery in Meja where a grave part is reserved for a war victim who was not yet found. 13/09/05/Meja-Gjakova/Kosovo

Photo 21 –
A photograph of a missing person hanged outside Kosovo Parliament Building in Prishtina. 08/09/06/Prishtina/Kosovo

Annex : Map of Kosovo

